David Manuel -Ten years ago, bestselling author David Manuel nearly died of kidney cancer. On his first morning home from the hospital, in his heart he heard God: Get up. Come to your chair. I want to talk to you. As did Joshua when similarly commanded [Get thee up. . . Joshua 7:10, KJV], he wrote down their exchange. Thus began a prayer journey that has continued every day since – a journey into intimacy.

In the past 33 years, David Manuel has written 37 books, two of them ongoing best-sellers (The Light and the Glory, co-authored with Peter Marshall, and Medjugorje: the Message, in collaboration with Wayne Weible). In 1999 he started the Faith Abbey Mystery series (Paraclete Press, hardcover; Time-Warner, paperback). Last fall he wrote The Last Awakening: A Call to Repentance – his firsthand account of what God is doing right now in America, and what we must do, if we would have Him heal our land. His most recent project is a just-published little book entitled Once Upon a Prayer: How to Hear God in your Heart.
